

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

The result of the data analysis, the researcher discusses the following conclusion and suggestion:

A. Conclusion.

First, the students lack of grammar, they cannot communicate using English and they do not understanding how to make good sentences in English and then to speak English. Second, the students are lack of vocabulary, they cannot speak English because they have limited vocabulary. Third, the students lack of pronunciation, because they do not know how writing and speaking in English is different. The fourth, the students felt anxiety, they fearfull of making mistakes when speaking English and it it making the students felt anxiety. The fifth, most of students get inhibited when speak English. Students felt inhibited about trying to speak using English in the learning process because they worried to pronounce words in English correctly, and for students they are afraid that their friends laugh at them when they are making mistakes while speaking English. The sixth, some of students use mother tongue when they speak English because the students make the habbit mother tongue in daily activities, they are comfortable use mother tongue like indonesian. The seventh, in the learning process in the classroom students low in participation especially when learning English, students have a difficult to understanding meaning of words or sentences in English.

B. Suggestion

After make a conclusion and get the final result from the research, the researcher will give some suggestion that could help to developed this research to be better:

1. For students: it is suggested to be more confidence when speak English in the learning process in the classroom especially when speaking in front of classmates. The students must be learn more about speaking for example the students always practice in classroom, or the other place to build confidence and vocabulary or join English course to get more knowledge about speaking.
2. For the teacher: from this research the researcher suggest to the teacher, the teacher must be creative in conducting the learning process and the students enjoy the class
3. For future researcher: this research could be their reference if they want to make a research and explore more about the difficulties of students in speaking English.

