

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

Based on the research results of the research that has been done, the researcher concluded that the use of Google Translate as a tool in the teaching and learning process of Writing is very effective. This can be seen in the articles reviewed by previously researchers. Google Translate is very effective for English teachers if it is used as a tool for teaching writing because teachers find it easy with good grammar and good spelling so that it is easy for teachers to understand. In addition, Google Translate is also effective for students who want to learn to write in English, because students can write quite well, it can be seen that there are little spelling errors, grammar and students write faster.
