

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

Based on the results of the research and discussion in chapter IV, the learning strategies use by teachers in teaching English learning is four strategies. These strategies are expository strategies, cooperative strategies, contextual strategies, and problem-based strategies (PBL). Of the four strategies, English teachers used two strategies namely, cooperative strategies and problem based learning. Students' responses to the learning strategies used by the teacher, that the students can receive learning well so that it can be in accordance with the learning objectives that have been designed.

B. Sugestions

1. Students : Students can develop learning abilities based on their learning experience so as to achieve effective learning outcomes.
2. English teacher : English teacher can find out what learning strategies should be used to achieve effective and efficient learning.
3. Readers and future researchers : Can be used as a reference to get information about what strategies to do in the learning process, especially in learning English